

MARKING SCHEME

1. Comprehension passage

1. The work of the constitution of Kenya review commission is to review the present constitution, collect and collate views from the public and then write a new.
2. Good governance entails respect for human rights.
3. The human family would be extinct because people would attack and kill each other with impunity.
4. A constitution according to the passage is a system of rules through which all human rights are protected and a country is governed.
5.
 - a) right to life
 - b) right to security and ownership of property
 - c) right to freedom of speech
 - d) right to association

6. Kenya must first gain an understanding of their right are enshrined in the new constitution. They must also unite, speak in one voice against abuses of human right and ensure detention without trial is not used as a weapon against those who denounce injustice in society.

7. Even more horrifying is a case in which defenseless child, sometimes just a month old is brutally defile.

8.
 - a) precipitated - brought about
 - b) supersede – come before
 - c) atrocities – acts of cruelty or wickedness.

2. ORAL NARRATIVE

a)Ogre /monster narrative – the ogre accepted the beads

b)(i)opening formulae

- Mark the actual beginning of the story
- Attract attention of the listeners
- Moves the audience from world of reality to that of fantasy

(ii)closing formulae

- Mark the end of the story
- Move audience from world of fantasy to that one of reality

c) i. opening formulae – once upon a time

ii. closing formulae – there ends the story

Download this and other FREE revision materials from <https://teacher.co.ke/notes>

iii. use of dialogue – between karia and her mother

iv. use of a song – you ogre

do not bother me

v. repetition – karia, karia, karia

vi. direct translation – father of karia

d) farming and beads making

e) i) greedy – swallowed all the beads, karia

ii) unkind – even after being given beads it ended swallowing karia

f) i. courageous

ii. determined

iii. hardworking

iv. disobedient

g) we should obey our parents.

We should be determined

3. GRAMMAR

1. a) fleet b) family c) school d) herds

2. a) is b) work c) does d) takes

3. a. Milano preferred to swim early in the morning.

b. Whenever the president visited a school, he planted a tree.

c. Were you planning to attend the trade fair that year?

4. a) felt b) better c) knew d) growing e) more generous f) led

5. a) Mukani is the prettiest girl.

b) The governor is the most senior officer in a county.

c) Kaluki consider English the best subject.

6. a) quickly b) carelessly

8. a) coarse b) altogether

10. a) Night flights are more comfortable for us.

b) The commanders – in – chief are the most powerful people in the armed forces.

c) Their new table cloths have beautiful colours

11. a) we b) her