

101/2

ENGLISH

PAPER 2

MARKING SCHEME

Question 1

- (a) They are experiencing massive population growth/ 1 and receiving huge number of migrants every year / 1
- (b) It reveals that there will be a massive increase in urban population by the year 2025 / 1 (1mk)
- (c) Urbanization in Africa is mostly intense in Algeria, Tunisia and South Africa /1 which have 50 percent of their population living in urban areas. /1 (2mks)
- (d) The desire to better living conditions / 1 in search of greener pastures / 2 (2mks)
- (e) Growing food in small plots / 1, green house /1 and small gardens /1 (3mks)
- (f) It refers to many small gardens in urban areas/ cities / 1 (1mk)
- (g) (i) unemployment or underemployment / 1a
(ii) Crime / 1b
(iii) Poverty and life in slums / 1c
(iv) Hunger and strain on food production/ 1d
(if in prose deduct ½ mk from the total score)
- (h) didn't they? (1mk)
(A comma before the tag, start with a small letter, must have an apostrophe and question mark. If any missing = 0)
- (i) Illusion – belief that is not true/dream/vision/mirage
Pragmatic – realistic/ practical/ functional/down to earth
Squalor – filthy environment/ dirty environment/poverty/dirt/filth

2. COMPULSORY SET – TEXT (25 MKS)

- a) Earlier, Hon.Ted speaks about the political entrepreneurs who vote with their stomachs. Hon. Ramdaye asks if they demanded for money to support the no confidence motion. Hon.Ted answers that they promised to deal as soon as money exchanged hands.

Later, Hon. Seymour reveals Mr. Torch's real name as Hon. Brian Hyde. Hon. Ramdaye refers to Mr. Torch as a scoundrel.

- b) Mr. Torch is independent-minded —I expect the so-called Mr.Torch is also in the group of the independent-minded.

He is also wise — he spoke many wise things.

Hon. Yongrui is disciplined — I hear he is highly disciplined.

He is also likeable — his political star has been rising with people thinking that he is the right person for the Mayor's seat.

- c) He is contemptuous — he compares him to a monkey.

- d) Metaphor - political star

Sarcasm - people say he... seem to tie up sometimes.

Idiom - Devil take his soul

Proverb -...there's always a winner even in a beauty contest of monkeys.

e) Themes

Mistrust - Who knows, may be Mayor Mossi gave him rat poison or some SSW: insecticide/The man can do anything to eliminate opposition against him.

Political conflict — when he heard you were against Mossi, he gave a very long snort of derisive laughter.

f) In a beauty contest of monkeys, he said, there is always a winner.

In a beauty contest of monkeys there is always a winner, he said.

(No mark without the commas in the right positions)

g) - Indecisive type

-Headless type

-Entrepreneurial type

h) Kindly soul — a nice person

Contempt — dislike/spite

Political star — luck in politics

Tie up — add up/make sense,

3. ORAL LITERATURE (20 mks)

(a) A etiological / Explanatory narrative (1mk)

It talks of why the animals have different pattern/ spots (1mk)

(b) (i) wedding ceremonies (1mk) king lion had invited other animals for his son's wedding (1mk)

(ii) communalism/Division of labour (1mk) each animal was allocated a different job eg leopard to decorate others, tortoise to make dye.

(c) (i) Opening formula (1mk) once upon a time (1mk)

(ii) Closing formula (1mk) and that's how Today (1 mk)

(iii) Timelessness (1mk) once upon a time (It can be applicable to any time in history)

(iv) Fantasy (1mk) animals have a wedding and decorating themselves for the same.(1mk)

(d) (i) meticulous/ rigorous/ precise (1mk)

He painted the Giraffe and Zebra till they looked beautiful (1mk)

(ii) Hardworking/ industrious (1mk)

He had to decorate all the animals (1mk)

(e) young children (1mk) as it serves the purpose of entertainment. (1mk)

it also teaches them about natural phenomena eg why different animals have different colours.

(f) (i) Seek permission from the local authorities to be allowed to conduct the fields study.

(ii) Liaise with my resource person.

(iii) Make a pre – visit to the place.

NB: Accept any other correct answer.

GRAMMAR

1) The teachers was welcomed by the children.

2) Neither John nor his sister takes Lunch.

3) Gatwiri asked (them) whether they could meet there the following morning.

4) This novel is superior to the one I bought last week

5) You do not (necessarily) need to collect the garbage today

(b)(1) Of the two books the first is the longer.

(2) The three girls sleep early.

(3) I did not find any colleague in class when I arrived late.

(c) (1) in

(2) to

(3) for

(d) (1) keep off

(2) ran into

(e) (1) infamous

(2) speeding

