SECTION A

TASK 1 : Listening and speaking

The teacher tells the learner.

"Now, I will tell you a story. Listen carefully. I will ask you questions about it."

Monday was a sad day for Jemima. She fell down while playing with her friends. She twisted her ankle. Her mother rushed her to the hospital. A doctor received them at the hospital. "What happened to her?" The doctor asked when they arrived.

"She fell down while playing," Jemima's mother replied. "How old is she?" The doctor asked.

The doctor checked Jemima's ankle and gently said "Do not worry, my child. You will be well. The doctor applied some liquid on twisted ankle and Jemima screamed in pain. (Teacher repeats)

TASK 2 : Reading aloud

Long time ago, there lived a beautiful bird. It's name was Dove.

It built it's nest near a river. One hot afternoon, it saw a little boy drowning down the river. It had to look for a way of saving the boy.

Since Dove was a small bird, it decided to look for support. So it started singing.

Chwi! Chwi! Help me.

Chwi! Chwi! Help.

Help me, help me.

A hunter who was in the forest heard Dove singing. He rushed to the river and saw the drowning boy.

He quickly got into the water and rescued the boy. From that day, Dove and the boy became friends.

Task 3 : Reading comprehension

Read the following passage and answer questions in the space provided.

The cat and the mouse

Once upon a time, the cat and the mouse were good friends. They lived in the same house.

One morning as the mouse was cooking, the cat was fetching water from the river.
